

BIOSECURITY ALERT!

Chilo insect pest poses a real threat to sugarcane in South Africa.

Your assistance is requested to look out for damage and larvae as illustrated below.

Shot holes on leaf

Side-shoot on stalk

Constricted internode on stalk

Moth

Eggs

Larva

Stalk damage

If you find damage or larvae, please inform your local Extension Specialist

Thank you for helping us to keep track of this pest.